WOMEN IN THE NAACP INDIANA STATE CONFERENCE NAACP WIN

BARBARA BOLLING

President

Indiana State Conference NAACP WIN

BARBARA HOLDER

Chair, WIN Committee

Indiana State Conference NAACP WIN

In celebration of the NAACP 100 years of existence the Indiana NAACP WIN (Women of the NAACP) invites you to celebrate with us by attending our Centennial Celebration and submitting the name of a Remarkable Woman to be recognized during this event. Just like the Founding Mothers of the NAACP, Indiana's NAACP WIN recognizes that there are Unsung Sheroes today that have endured many obstacles in their lives, yet they have never faltered. There are women in Indiana who are just like Ida B Wells, Mary Ovington and Mary Ellen Cable, which have made personal commitments without ever expecting anything in return. We want to honor those women that have continually dedicated their lives to Social/Civic Organizations, Religious Affiliations, Community Organizations, Corporations, the Military and their own personal families, regardless of their race, creed or color.

On Saturday, August 1, 2009, 6:00 p.m. at the Marriott Hotel, 350 West Maryland Street, Indianapolis, Indiana, remarkable women such as the one which you have selected will receive the recognition that they so rightfully deserve.

In order for her to be honored you must:

- Be willing to sponsor the Remarkable Woman by enclosing a check for $35 (Honorees Price Only)
- Enclose a black and white 2x3 photo (camera ready head shot)
- Submit the Recognition Form (located on the back) and all requested information no later than July 1, 2009 to Indiana State NAACP WIN P.O. Att: Barbara Holder/Nicole Wade P.O. Box 22133, Indianapolis, Indiana 46222

Note: if you are interested in purchasing an individual ticket, tables of 8, Congratulations Ad, or Sponsorship, complete the enclosed Sponsorship Form. The attire is after five/formal.
