Rev. Dr. Alvin Love

Rev. Dr. Phil Tom

Rev. Dr. Alvin Love is President of Developing Communities Project (DCP) in Chicago, Illinois. DCP is a faith-based grassroots organization organizing and advocating for social change in the Greater Roseland Community. Developing Communities Project (DCP) exists for the purpose of effective church based grassroots organizing. This project has included work with President Obama. Our mission continues to be the development of indigenous community residents and institutions for the purpose of solving urban neighborhood problems. Rev. Love is pastor of Lilydale First Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois; he is immediate past President, Baptist General State Convention of Illinois; Chairman, TOPIC Ministry, National Baptist Convention USA, Inc.

Rev. Dr. Phil Tom is the Associate for the Small Church and Community Ministry Office of the Presbyterian Church (USA). This office resources urban, rural, and small churches and their communities. Rev. Tom has pastored urban congregations, directed community organizations, and organized with community-based housing and economic development organizations. Rev. Tom serves on the board of Interfaith Funders and of Interfaith Worker Justice. Rev. Tom is past pastor of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis, Indiana.
