Mission Statement:

It is our mission to provide both offenders and ex-offenders, through inclusivity, with the tools necessary to re-integrate into the community. This integrative approach is designed to help with the issues of Reentry using practical knowledge, wisdom and understanding, taught on both secular and non-secular level by selected service providers.

A full curriculum of available studies will be available on site upon request.

Please do not hesitate to join us anytime in this integrative approach to Reentry.

Bringing awareness to reentry and the seemingly overwhelming issues surrounding it through a practical application of experience is the chief cornerstone of The LEVI Project.
